

WoodWorks Announces 2016 Wood Design Award Winners

Celebrating excellence in non-residential and multi-family wood design

---

Washington D.C. (January 25, 2016) – WoodWorks, an initiative of the Wood Products Council, has announced the winners of its 2016 Wood Design Awards.

“WoodWorks Wood Design Awards celebrate projects and design teams that showcase the innovative use of wood as both a structural and finish material,” said Jennifer Cover, PE, executive director of WoodWorks/Wood Products Council. “Ranging from mass timber to traditional wood-frame, this year’s winning projects exemplify wood’s many attributes, from structural performance and design versatility, to sustainability and cost effectiveness.”

National awards are being presented in nine categories including:

- Multi-Story Wood Design
- Commercial Wood Design
- Wood in Government Buildings
- Institutional Wood Design
- Wood in Educational Buildings
- Beauty of Wood – Innovation
- Beauty of Wood – Craft
- Green Building by Nature
- Green Building by Design

Seven Regional Excellence Awards will be presented at regional Wood Solutions Fairs beginning with the North Central Wood Solutions Fair in Minneapolis on March 23.
